Excerpt: .in the discharge of a public duty, than as a private person, as you had intended. But as I had warned you to be careful not to That is Bagdad. Soliman took it from Tahmasp in 1534, and the Turks held it until the year 1623, when it was betrayed by the governor s son to Abbas the Shah of Persia. t In the interval between the date of the last letter of Languet and this, Sidney had again visited Germany, as ambassador from the Queen to the Emperor Rodolph, to condole with him on the death of his father Maximilian, who died Oct. 12, 1576. For a particular account of this mission see Zouch s Life of Sir Philip Sidney. give any one an occasion of speaking ill of you, seeing that you had executed all that the Queen committed to you in such a manner as to obtain commendation and honour, and as I nevertheless saw that you were burning to be presented to Orange, and form an acquaintance with him, I was afraid you would afterwards charge me with having prevented you from accomplishing your purpose. For I do not forget how often you have reproached me as the cause of your giving up the journey to Rome. Since you left us nothing has happened in Germany that is particularly worth relating. The Elector Palatine has not yet returned home. There is no change at Heidelberg since he went away, but...
