Excerpt: .a serious cause of a large amount of sickness, yet it is surprising how owners of wells adhere to the idea that the well water is all right, and even go so far as to defy the Board to close them up. The work, however, is gradually going on, and numerous wells are being closed or disused. In some cases we have had the water analyzed, and when found bad have ordered the wells to be closed forthwith. Our Board has requested the City Council to have erected a small building on the grounds of the General and Marine Hospital, for the purpose of isolating cases of contagious diseases--other than smallpox--that occur in families or hotels, where it becomes necessary to have the patients removed, thus affording a convenient place where such patients can receive the necessary care and nursing. The city pays a sum annually to the hospital for this and other purposes. The statistics from report of city clerk show the death-rate from all sources, up to 15th Nov., 1888, to be 175, being a death-rate of 17.5 per 1,000. Deduct from this amount 43 deaths by accident, old age, etc., and there are only 142 deaths from natural causes, making actual death-rate 14.2 per 1,000. The expense account of our Board will be inside of the appropriation of $500. Three hundred and sixty of said sum is paid to the Sanitary Inspector, who performs his various and sometimes very unpleasant duties...
