

Murder Goes for the Green: A Zach Roper and the Thai Princess Mystery (Paperback)

By M H Burton

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Zach Roper and the Thai Princess's last adventure Murder Takes a Mulligan got them a lot deeper into Thai politics than they had bargained for. They're confident that they will stay out of Thai politics this time because they're no longer in Thailand, but the good old USA, where politics are much more straightforward and less deadly...or are they? Once again they mean to concentrate strictly on golf, at least when they aren't preoccupied with sex, no murders, no crimes, no politics...no more cases to solve. They get off to a promising start with an invitation to something called a Fiesta de Golfo at a gated community in the Arizona desert where they quickly find that golf takes a back seat to socializing, investment seminars, and booze. Zach has to rescue the Thai Princess as she threatens to drift away on a sea of margaritas and meatballs while the golf action on the duffer-ville course is far less than stellar. Both of them are off their games but they still manage to hustle some...
