Reviews

The publication is easy to read and better to understand. It is written in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You won't truly feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Domestic Science: Crete Plan The rapid and substantial growth of industrial education during the past few years can be explained only on the hypothesis that it is meeting the demands of the best educators. To find a place in our educational system a new subject must add something to the physical, mental or moral development of the pupil. Industrial education has proved that it adds to the powers of the pupil in all three of these essentials. Manual training and domestic science have made the most rapid growth, partly because it is easier to prepare for the successful teaching of these subjects and partly because skill acquired in them is more readily and quickly applied in actual life. Schools in the cities and larger towns are able to equip rooms for manual training and domestic science and employ special teachers for these subjects. The smaller towns and rural schools, however, where such work is needed as much as in the cities, cannot meet the extra expense of equipment and teachers. Whatever will in any way add to the efficiency of our smaller schools will be helping to develop the powers of a large and important class of our pupils. It is with this in mind that this department is issuing this bulletin on a plan of teaching domestic science that has been in use in the state more than five years and has been pronounced practical by many superintendents of schools and by teachers of domestic science. The many inquiries that have been made concerning the Crete Plan in domestic science, the general interest shown in the subject of industrial culture as an important part...
