Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1910 edition. Excerpt: . Given a growing work and a staff growing only in the capacity for the work, many details clamoring for attention must remain undone. The sorting of the pamphlet collection, begun last year, has proceeded very slowly, and another year may elapse before the pamphlet boxes will be fully employed to bring this mass into shape. A large consignment of important topographic maps, obtained from the Government to complete our files, have been awaiting our convenience for mounting and indexing. The transference of the government documents to the top stack and the wholesale shifting of the bound periodicals to make room for growth, which could not be effected last year as planned, come now into our expectations for 1914-15. Yet too much to do gives tremendous incentive, and our Library is what it is because our work never permits us to fold our hands. Art Reference Department Laura E. Palmer, Head of the Department. Attendance for the year. 10,959 Books and plates circulated on deposit. 128 Books and plates taken on Director's permit. 3,757 Photographs taken on Director's permit. 2,377 Photographs used at the Library. 2,423 Photographs lent outside the Institute. 2,877 The Arts School and the Department.--Any definite change in curriculum or schedules in the School of Fine Arts produces as definite a reaction in the Art Reference Room of the Library, so close is the cooperation between them. Fluctuations in attendance are always traceable to the changing movements...
