Enter from house Mosher and Douglass talking. Douglass, (4 C.) Very well, Mosher, then that s settled. But you see, my lad, a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, and - Mosher, R. C. Yes - I ve read that somewhere - and I never forget what I have once read. Doug. As I was saying: The first thing to do is to get this boy Ross in our grasp without his brother being present, but that s a difficult thing, seeing as how they re always together. Mosher. (carelessly lighting a cigar.) Hem! That s easy as thinking. Doug. You think so do you? Well, I hope you re right in your conjecture. Mosher. There is not much business done about here, the place is lonely enough at all times, so we need nt fear much from interruption. Doug. Well, you re right. We want money, it wont come to us, so we...
