Excerpt from The Scientific Basis of Education Demonstrated: By an Analysis of the Temperaments and of Phrenological Facts in Connection With the Mental Phenomena and the Office of the Holy Spirit in the Processes of the Mind; In a Series of Letters, to the Department of Public Instruction in the City of New York Henry Kiddle, Esq., Dear Sir: - The opportunity which your late note of inquiry affords me of laying before you, in writing, some views connected with the subject of practical education in our Ward Schools, I very gladly accept. In the discharge of the duties devolved upon me, as Public School Inspector of the Second District, it is my desire to co-operate in every way in my power, with my co-laborers in the department; and I feel it to be my immediate duty to lay before you such suggestions as an experience of thirty-five years, spent in closely studying the nature of man, enables me to make. In the first place, the most important fact which has been apparent to me, after having...
