THE MOSTLY TRUE ADVENTURES OF DAVY BROOKS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The reader needs to know that almost all these adventures really happened and the accounts of the others that have spread the jaws of truth just missed happening. This is a coming-of-age story of a remarkable teenage lad who figured out human psychology from the lessons he learned from his many adventures. Or at least he thought he had. Davy is known as the Preacher by his teenage friends because he chastises them for cussing and he is certain their tales of deflowering girls are downright lies. However, Davy s no goody-goody. His friends can t believe he has the guts to go into the meanest honkytonk in Hell s Half Acre, alone, and talk to rascallions and ne er do wells about reforming their ways. The mothers of Davy s friends sound like one of those broken records that were played on a thing called a phonograph during the 50s: Why can t you be like Davy? Stranger still, Davy lives in a neighborhood with an extraordinarily high juvenile crime rate yet, he hasn t once been in trouble with the law. Even more incredible, rumor has it that Davy is thinking about breaking a long tradition in the Acre: he s planning on going to college! To prove he s human, Davy will only admit to one fault: he lies to his beloved mother about his activities so she won t be saddened to learn he is a hypocrite. However, we can t lose sight our poor lad is only a teenager. He has been caught showing considerable attention to protrusions from girl s tight sweaters. And of course, he would love to hear rubber peeling...
