MILES TO GO BEFORE I SLEEP: ROAD TO GLORY 2 (PAPERBACK)

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Finally reunited after three months of misunderstanding, confusion, and separation, Glory Meredith, a college student in Illinois, and Adam Runner, a young basketball coach at a small Ohio high school, are set to embark on their life journey up a road that looks both safe and wide. But the path upon which they have set their feet quickly turns dangerous. Amid rumors and allegations that threaten to separate them before they have hardly begun, they nevertheless forge ahead on the strength of a deep and abiding love for each other. Though a successful coach and teacher, Runner battles the demons of fear, a loss of confidence in himself as a husband and father, and a lack of faith that eventually drives him to a reliance on superstition. Delusion convinces him that riding a motorcycle along back country roads is the only way to protect his family, and it is on one of these charm excursions that he comes face to face with his own mortality. Glory is determined to help the man she loves overcome the phobias and fears in his private life while supporting him in his successes as a highly regarded coach. And after Runner suffers life-threatening injuries in a horrific motorcycle accident and lies unconscious and near death, Glory attempts an experiment that, if successful, will not only help him to awaken, but also to rid him once and for all of his compulsions.
