Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****."When our focus is on the church instead of Christ, we lose the reality and vitality of both. Thats John Hamptons theme in Flatlining, which is not only a compelling look at the failures and excesses of the church as weve come to know it, but also a road map to explore the church Jesus promised to build. If you care about recovering a view of the Gospel and a church experience that is as engaging as it is transforming, youll want to read this book." Wayne Jacobsen, Finding Church and He Loves Me Fifty years ago, Billy Graham predicted that a time would come when millions of Christians would reject the institutional church. It would appear that this time has come to pass. For every church-going Christian in the UK, there are two who have given up attending church altogether, while in the US we find growing numbers of Dones Bible-believing Christians who are done with church. The subsequent actions of these church exiles are many and varied: some try to regroup in a variety of forms, whilst others give up on fellowship altogether. Those that attempt to do church right including those groups that attempt to model themselves on biblical patterns often end up looking very much the same as the churches from which they have fled, repeating the same fundamental errors. This being the case, is there any hope for the increasing numbers of believers who, disillusioned with church as they know it, are searching for authentic Christian community? The author maintains that true body life can only happen when we come to recognise that we cannot equate the Body of Christ...
